

Trekking Gorillas in the Mist: Rwanda

Item 101

Voted #4 Overall and the #1 Destination in Africa on the list of The 30 Top Emerging Travel Destinations for 2020

“Gorilla Trekking in Rwanda: A Bucket-List Must!” Wall Street Journal November 7, 2019

Rwanda has recently been named the safest country in Africa by the World Economic Forum. The list of why Rwanda is the “it” place to go is lengthy but most famously for the opportunity to come face to face with the world’s most enrapturing creature—the protected mountain gorillas.

Winning bidders will enjoy 4 days/ 3 nights for two people starting in Kigali, Rwanda’s capital city—boasting world class art galleries and fashion, cultural experiences, and serving as the gateway to gorilla trekking. After a restful night and a tour of the city, you will make your way to Volcanoes National Park, home to the world’s last remaining mountain gorillas in their natural habitat. Visiting these gentle, amazing creatures is highly regulated and limited in order to preserve the apes and their habitat.

Inclusive of: RT airport transfer, 1 night Kigali Serena Hotel (or similar) BB, city tour; 2 nights Mountain Gorilla View Lodge (or similar) all meals, gorilla trekking park entrance fees of $1500pp; private car/guide to all excursions, hotel and/or lodge. Airfare not included.

This package is non-transferable, expires two years from the date of the event. Minimum age of 15 years at the time of travel. There are no blackout dates, but it is subject to availability and winning bidders are advised to book at least 90 days prior to travel. Additional travelers, nights, excursions can be added.

Provided by: Kosen Safaris, Africa and Auction Shake Up
Estimated Value: $10,975.00
